Design Lab

Wednesday 3:15-4:15pm
Jan 10 - Mar 27

Denise Dunn
Grades 3rd-5th

Design LAB is a hands-on education program offered to teachers in the Cincinnati area that is focused on building awareness, knowledge, and community. This year's theme is LEARNING SPACES. We will be challenging students to push the limits of where and how we and others learn. When we think of learning spaces we often think of the space that we learn in ourselves. We may also think of where and how our neighbors or friends learn. This year in Design LAB, we are going to challenge students to look at how people (and animals!) learn all over the world. How can a learning space inspire others to want to learn more or spend more meaningful time in the classroom?

How does our local environment change how we learn? How does our age or size change how we learn? Where can learning spaces be located, and how big or small can they be? What needs do they need to meet? Join us as we investigate all of the different learning spaces that exist all over the world!

It takes place on Wednesdays from 3:15 - 4:15 (rooms TBD). Students will report to Extended Day (no charge), and the instructor will pick them up after the car line ends.

This activity is limited to 6 students.

It begins on Jan 10, 2024 and ends on March 27, 2023. *dates are subject to change when Design Lab releases 2024 information.

Cost is $110 per student.

We've got all the slimes! Butter, glow-in-the dark, thermochromic, edible, magnetic, crunchy, cloud, and more!! Believe it or not, slime is a great way to discover properties of matter and use science tools. Students will optimize slime in a team of chemical engineers in a real-world experiment to make bouncy balls.

Participants should pack a snack for after school.

Minimum: 8 students
Maximum: 15 students
